

Sun Gallery Summer Art Day Camp Discipline Policy, Summer 2016 (Parent or Guardian, please read over these rules)

Sun Gallery strives to provide each student with a positive, engaging artistic experience. We strive for a respectful environment for teaching, learning, and summertime fun.

We will provide organized outdoor activities for scheduled breaks.

We expect our students to respect other students, volunteers, gallery staff and teachers.

Please review these rules with your child before he/she starts Art Camp:

1. Respect Sun Gallery:

(Do not enter the gallery without permission and an accompanying adult), No running or playing inside the gallery space.

2. Stay in supervised areas: (The hill in the courtyard and the areas behind the buildings are off limits. Stay within fenced area).

3. Respect each other: No hitting, putdowns or bullying. We strive to create a positive space for creativity and self-expression, negativity will not be tolerated.

4. Respect the gallery & studio: Students will be responsible for helping to clean up their own areas on a daily basis.

Please note that engaging in negative behaviors of any kind will result in an instant home contact and a responsible adult will need to address the misbehavior.
